James Dawson was charged with stealing a dog from J. N. Norn. The case was dismissed.

James Osborne, supplying intoxicating liquor to an Indian woman, was remanded for a day.

Lacy, a Hindu woman, was charged by Tommy a Nara Indian, with destroying Tommy's clothing. Remanded for a day.

The above was given in charge by John Olin, for stealing a silver watch. Otto's property. Remanded one day.

John Hilman pleaded guilty to supplying liquor to an Indian. Fined $100, in default three months in jail.

John Scott, up for a similar offense, was remanded for three days.

Mary, a Fort Rupert squaw, was placed in the dock on the charge of stealing a pair of boots from Jackson. She was discharged for want of sufficient evidence.

The California's Freight List for Victoria and the Sound.—6,174 qrs flour; 9 cns canned goods; 6 pkgs stationery; 2 pianos; 20 bbls apples; 3 pkgs appls; 10 pkgs ham; 120 bbls sugar; 4 cns boxes; 2 pkgs ham; 400 lbs tea; 2 cns corn meal; 10 pkgs household goods; 4 wagons; 11 pkgs cloth; 40 mrs rice; 7 pkgs salmon; 8 cns sweet potatoes; 10 cns candy; 4 cns coal oil; 48 lbs soap; 10 cns tea; 2 cns pt powders; 2 cns; 4 bbls tobacco; 20 pkgs wheat; 8 pkgs meal; 20 bbls salt; 5 sewing machines; 20 pkgs paper; 40 bbls sugar; 5 cns cheese; 8 cns butter; 3 cns eggs; 3 cns coffee; 5 bbls blankets; 12 cns jars; 9 bbls whiskey; 10 cns bread; 10 kgs molasses.

Lecture.—We cheerfully welcome the announcement appearing by advertisement that Mr. W. E. Ball proposes to entertain us with another of his popular lectures, and which in present absence of public entertainments will be most acceptable. The subject chosen will admit of the delivery of a very interesting lecture, and from Mr. Ball's extensive reading, and clearness of mind, we are confident that the subject will be well handled. We shall look forward with pleasure to the night of delivery, and hope on the occasion to see our fellow-citizens master in good numbers.

Wasson's Tannery.—The Fair held at Olympia is highly spoken of by those who visit it. The Puget Sound Telegraph Co. is now in operation between Port Gamble, Port Madison and Port Blakely. The Nicholas Biddle, in the collision with the Windward, last Wednesday. She arrived at Blakely on Wednesday last. At ten o'clock on Wednesday evening, last, the last rail was laid on the road as Victoria's and constructed a new route over the entire length from Kalamo to that point. The work was a little delayed by the difficulty of getting iron.

Prisoners of New Westminster Town Lots. At the auction held yesterday at Twelve rooms, brought the following figures: Lot 9, block XVII, $45; 1 block XXVII, $34; 24 block XXXI, $27. They were purchased by Mr. F. H. Hargrave as an agent. Major Lewis bought the next three lots which were offered—9, block XXXII, $35; 10, block IX, $45; 11, block X, $50. Mr. Hargrave got for No. 2, in block X, $55. Mr. P. Rogers for No. 2, block XXX, paid $55. From the above, it would appear, the public haven't a hint that N. W. will stand much chance of the terms.

From the Sound.—The North Pacific arrived in port from Puget Sound yesterday afternoon, with a mail, and passengers as follows: O. B. Jennings and wife, Wm. Jennings and wife, Mrs. James, Miss James, Miss Ballen, Messrs. Parsons, Page, McDonald, Finkert, G. Guy, Payson, Sigel, Hargrave, Smith, Martin, Allan, Jones, Cronin and wife, Capt. Hansen and wife, Capt. Libby, Capt. Williamson, Mrs. Fleming and child, Larke, Parice, Kane, Sprague, Doneyhue, Lohry, Taylor, Adams, Hastings, Floyd, 16 Indian, 6 Chinamen.

Later from Port Garry.—Fort Garry, Sept. 26.—No further disturbance has occurred. The principal instigators of the trouble, including Cornish and Theobald, have named themselves with revolvers and pistols, threatening to threaten anyone who attempts to make a move. I am told that the arrests will be made. It is rumored that if the Government do not act, a vigilance committee of the respectable citizens will be formed. There is deep feeling against the leaders of the riot.

Arrival of the Street Car.—The steamer for Portland, a few days ago, brought up two structures, as appliances or part-ras of the cars that will be used upon the street railroad when completed. The cars are from the well-known car and carriage manufactory of Kimball & Co., in Portland, and were brought to order for the Portland Street Railroad Company.

The Cowichan Snow.—A large party will leave by the Maude to-morrow morning to attend the Cowichan District Agricultural Exhibition. Mr. Hunter has chartered the steamer for the round trip, tickets for which are only $1.50 each. A good opportunity is thus offered to see a useful and pleasant day. The excursionists will be back the evening of the show.

The Railway.—The latest Ottawa mail advises that it is understood that the Dominion Cabinet is occupied in discussing the question of disposing of the Pacific Railway surplus. It is stated that the two companies applying have amalgamated, which will probably make it a more difficult matter to make a contract a bargain.

Closure of the Cariboo Mines.—It appears the people of Cariboo are averse to the closing of the mines during the winter. Our dispatches announce that memorials against the stoppage have been prepared, to be sent to the Manager in this city. We fear they won't have the desired effect.

Deaths.—The old Assembly building, situated on Broad street and for many years a school, is at last dismantled, and being removed piecemeal.

Overman on San Francisco.—San Francisco, Oct. 9.—Miss Wilson and Mrs. M. E. Murphy for Victoria.

For Hous.—H. M. S. Boyla will leave for England this morning, at 11 o'clock.

Hansen and wife, Capt. Libby, Capt. Williamson, Mrs. Fleming and child, Larke, Parice, Kane, Sprague, Doneyhue, Lohry, Taylor, Adams, Hastings, Floyd, 16 Indian, 6 Chinamen.

Later from Port Garry.—Fort Garry, Sept. 26.—No further disturbance has occurred. The principal instigators of the trouble, including Cornish and Theobald, have named themselves with revolvers and pistols, threatening to threaten anyone who attempts to make a move. I am told that the arrests will be made. It is rumored that if the Government do not act, a vigilance committee of the respectable citizens will be formed. There is deep feeling against the leaders of the riot.

Arrival of the Street Car.—The steamer for Portland, a few days ago, brought up two structures, as appliances or part-ras of the cars that will be used upon the street railroad when completed. The cars are from the well-known car and carriage manufactory of Kimball & Co., in Portland, and were brought to order for the Portland Street Railroad Company.

The Cowichan Snow.—A large party will leave by the Maude to-morrow morning to attend the Cowichan District Agricultural Exhibition. Mr. Hunter has chartered the steamer for the round trip, tickets for which are only $1.50 each. A good opportunity is thus offered to see a useful and pleasant day. The excursionists will be back the evening of the show.

The Railway.—The latest Ottawa mail advises that it is understood that the Dominion Cabinet is occupied in discussing the question of disposing of the Pacific Railway surplus. It is stated that the two companies applying have amalgamated, which will probably make it a more difficult matter to make a contract a bargain.

Closure of the Cariboo Mines.—It appears the people of Cariboo are averse to the closing of the mines during the winter. Our dispatches announce that memorials against the stoppage have been prepared, to be sent to the Manager in this city. We fear they won't have the desired effect.

Deaths.—The old Assembly building, situated on Broad street and for many years a school, is at last dismantled, and being removed piecemeal.

Overman on San Francisco.—San Francisco, Oct. 9.—Miss Wilson and Mrs. M. E. Murphy for Victoria.

For Hous.—H. M. S. Boyla will leave for England this morning, at 11 o'clock.

Lecture.—We cheerfully welcome the announcement appearing by advertisement that Mr. W. E. Ball proposes to entertain us with another of his popular lectures, and which in present absence of public entertainments will be most acceptable. The subject chosen will admit of the delivery of a very interesting lecture, and from Mr. Ball's extensive reading, and clearness of mind, we are confident that the subject will be well handled. We shall look forward with pleasure to the night of delivery, and hope on the occasion to see our fellow-citizens master in good numbers.

The Nicholas Biddle, in the collision with the Windward, last Wednesday. She arrived at Blakely on Wednesday last. The work was a little delayed by the difficulty of getting iron.

Prisoners of New Westminster Town Lots. At the auction held yesterday at Twelve rooms, brought the following figures: Lot 9, block XVII, $45; 1 block XXVII, $34; 24 block XXXI, $27. They were purchased by Mr. F. H. Hargrave as an agent. Major Lewis bought the next three lots which were offered—9, block XXXII, $35; 10, block IX, $45; 11, block X, $50. Mr. Hargrave got for No. 2, in block X, $55. Mr. P. Rogers for No. 2, block XXX, paid $55. From the above, it would appear, the public haven't a hint that N. W. will stand much chance of the terms.

Jennings and wife, Mrs. James, Miss James, Miss Ballen, Messrs. Parsons, Page, McDonald, Finkert, G. Guy, Payson, Sigel, Hargrave, Smith, Martin, Allan, Jones, Cronin and wife, Capt.
